THE HIGHEST TIDE: A NOVEL

New York, New York, U.S.A.: Bloomsbury Pub Plc USA, 2005. Hardcover. Book Condition: New. Dust Jacket Condition: New. 1st Edition. Book Description: Miles O'Malley steps off the page and inhabits the reader's mind through the course of this novel and for a long time thereafter. Like Holden Caulfield or the teenage narrator of The Curious Incident of the Dog in the Night-Time, Miles' voice is wholly original and dead-on true. Miles lives on Puget Sound and is enthralled by the sea and its creatures. When he becomes the first person to sight a live giant squid he is hailed as some sort of prophet. The media descend and everyone wants to hear what Miles has to say. But Miles is just a kid, a self-described "increasingly horny, speed-reading thirteen-year-old insomniac" who's in love with the girl next door and obsessed with the writings of Rachel Carson. Over the course of a magical summer a dramatic sea change will occur, both for Miles and the coastline he loves, culminating in the highest tide in 100 years. This beautifully written first novel is more than a coming-of-age story. It's an environmental allegory as powerful as Life of Pi and the perfect book to take to the beach. From the Author: "Basically, you have to find two people who love your book, an agent and a publisher," says Lynch, whose story is a Ron Howard kind of tale about a geeky adolescent boy who discovers a giant squid on the shores of Puget Sound. Bloomsbury publisher Karen Rinaldi snapped it up when it was only two-thirds completed, and her instincts were good: Not only do I like the book (the oracle speaks), but it has also been chosen as a BookSense pick and as a Borders "Original Voices" choice. The book will also be...
