Trafford Publishing, Canada, 2006. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 249 x 173 mm. Language: English Brand New Book  Print on Demand .I Believe: Volume 3 is a non-fictional text; the third of two previous transcripts and the extension of the Gospel of the Living God, and Jesus Christ, with the fullfilments of prophecies, spoken of, by the prophets, given unto them by the word of the living God. How this text, and the two previous texts came to be - after I had made God a promise while yet a child myself, concerning my children to be. There were other promises I made to God as I traveled along the way. By knowing that I was a drop out, with an eighth grade education, and the mindset of an America, of what it was and what it was growing to be I saw this task as being an impossible task without a divine help. In this promise, I asked God, if he made the journey prosperous, I would serve him until I die. After many jobs that paid common labor, I obtained a job, working for the local railroad working as a machinist in a locomotive shop. In this job, I provided for my children a quality education. I had two daughters attending the University of Arkansas at Fayetteville and a son attending Stanford University all in the year of 1993, and my job was their major support and provider. November of 1993, the same year after President HW Bush, the father, had invaded Iraq and defeated it and withdrew from from most of its territory I didn t know that God had ordained me to be a prophet, over two thousand, six hundred years ago, and neither do I know, that the book of Job, and the year in...
