Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Political Musings Political Musings Dedicated to all lovers of True Democracy, and approving Americans In the earl days of our American Independence the spirit of pohtical partyism was born. Two or more parties having been organized, each vying with the other as to which should hold power and admister in Governmental affairs. The evolution of the various parties ended in the birth of the two largest existing parties, viz. Democratic and Republican. Various other parties are rapidly growing in strength. The pictures of three animals are being used by cartoonists to represent three of the political parties, namely, the Elephant, the Donkey, or Mule, and the Bull Moose. The latter is sick and unable to run. The noble desire and legitimate purpose to steer the Grand Old Ship of State for the greatest good to the greatest number of her noble people was consumed by the inordinate desire for greed, the love of money, The root of all evil, the getting of wealth, even though acquired by the kidnapping and selling of human beings and their enslavement in this, supposed to be the most civilized of countries. All this was the result of the Satanic African Slave Traffic, whose wicked practices gave birth to the Abolition political party of which was born the Republican party, with the characteristic of avarice and intense desire to rule; regardless of the peace, happiness and welfare of the American people at large. Some accuse the Administration of showing partiality to England thus denominating it Diluted Americanism. Others claim his views and ruling to be Undiluted in the extreme. Let us prove which by our votes. Let us not do...
