Brand New Book  Print on Demand .I became a Christian at the age of sixteen but found my sanity when I was twenty-two. When I became a Christian, I didn't go forward on a Sunday morning and recite a prayer, or fill out a questionnaire so that people knew that I understood what I was doing. In my case, my uncertainty of where I would spend eternity just caught up with me one night. I was lying in my bed on Friday night, January 29, 2002 and I cried out to Jesus to come into my life and be my Savior. A miraculous rush came over me that night, one that I could not identify at the time. All I knew was that I was no longer destined for hell, rather my final destination was now with Christ in the heavenly realms. I didn't know what that looked like at the time and I am still not sure. I became a Christian when I realized that if heaven is just a shack and if Jesus is there with me, I would be more than ecstatic with that. I was adopted by Him. He saved me. However, this sense of liberation lasted only a short time. What I thought was going to be this incredible relationship with the Almighty God, turned out to be like an exchange of burdens; meaning, that when I decided to follow Christ, I anticipated a relationship. I thought I was going to be able to cast all my junk on Him and He would love me. What I found out is that most people in practice do not agree with that statement. The more I...
