

Call Me Home: A Novel

By Kruse, Megan

Hawthorne Books, 2015. Book Condition: New. Brand New, Unread Copy in Perfect Condition. A+ Customer Service!
 Summary: Megan Kruse is a young writer of raw and fearless talent and Call Me Home showcases all she can do. She writes here of harrowing lives -- of a family bent and broken by violence, where each person is desperately trying to somehow grow toward light and liberation. In the process, she offers a most unlikely tale of hardiness and hustle, of grace and loss, of painful love and tough breaks and the unimaginable paths we must all eventually take toward survival. --Elizabeth Gilbert, Author of Eat, Pray, Love I've been a big fan of Megan Kruse for a long time, but Call Me Home left me astonished by her talent. Beautifully written, deeply felt and utterly compelling, this story of a desperate family separated and on the run is full of unforgettable scenes and richly imagined characters and heady suspense. It's so vivid, it feels like my own memory. I recommend it with all my heart. --Dan Chaon, Author of Await Your Reply Megan Kruse has written a tough, unflinching and very loving story about an isolated family trying to scrape by...
