Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from The Bay State Forty-Fourth: A Regimental Record It would be quite foolish, as well as useless to boast that the 44th contained the only young men of promise that have enlisted since the war began; or to clam that our Regiment is in advance of all others in education or morality; nor is it intention of the regard to this thousands; - he wishes merely to make mention of the thoughts that occur to one who has simply met our boys as comrades in camp duty or on the march. The love of fun is an element in the character of most boys; and in the 44th that characteristic seems a marked one. We mean genuine fun, without the desire for mischief that very often accompanies the element mentioned. the mock dress parades and kitten burials that made some rainy days at Readville pass more quickly, were evidences of the humor of the ring-leaders there; and, at the present time, whenever there is an opportunity, something laughable is brought forward to enliven the crowd. On...
