The governor is taking care of the child after it is dead! The ladies and gentlemen who are with me are hoping that you will help us to take care of the child while it is yet alive, and not delay until its poor little body is prepared to be laid away in the grave. And, right here, I wish, from the volumes of evidence that have been taken at these hearings, to read to you a sentence from a gentleman who is respected in this city, and in Cambridge, and throughout the Commonwealth, the Rev. Mr. Beach, of Cambridge. You will remember it; it is pertinent to the governor's remark: Finally, I should think the facts in this case, as they have been brought out by experts, ought to touch the hardest hearts. I should think the existence of the great companies such as we have had named before us, with...
