Proud Americans: Growing Up as Children of Immigrants

By Judie Fertig Panneton

Createspace, United States, 2011. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 214 x 149 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Children of immigrants are different. They are their parents guides to American ways. PROUD AMERICANS: GROWING UP AS CHILDREN OF IMMIGRANTS includes a collection of inspirational stories about approximately 50 people s joys and struggles while coming of age in the United States as children of immigrants. Included are Hollywood stars, high-profile media and business people, award-winning athletes, members of the President s cabinet, elected officials and those whose names may not be recognizable but whose stories are certain to be memorable. You ll meet people like Tony Xiong, whose dream is to become a police officer. Who would have guessed that s what he would want to become after growing up with two gang-member brothers who were often in trouble with the law? Then, there s Natalia Estrada, a hair stylist who is the daughter of Mexican immigrants who were farm workers. Estrada s coming-of-age wisdom shows how she dreamed of a different heritage but grew to become a proud Mexican American. Dorothy Takeuchi remembers growing up as the child of Japanese immigrants and the time her...
