

Death Revokes the Offer

By Catharine Bramkamp

Few Little Books. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 262 pages. Would you like a break from all those skinny heroines and read an exciting mystery adventure featuring an unrepentant size 18 professional with breasts large enough to qualify for their own zip code Meet Allison Little, the biggest realtor in town. The first thing you should know about me is that I do not cut my own hair with nail scissors. Please. Robert would kill me if I even considered touching my hair with my own two hands. Im not a doctor and I never know exactly why a body is dead, I only know that when you find a dead body in the kitchen, it makes it that much more difficult to sell the house, what with all the hysteria about full disclosure nowa-days. Difficult, but not impossible. I am not a national park ranger. I do not work while also caring for adorable children or difficult teens. In fact I completely forgot to have children. Some where in my past, the word children was written on some long ago goal list along with items like white wedding at the Marin Country Club and Lose 150 pounds by Christmas penciled...
