A Jewish Tale is a saga of an American Jewess s life, which spans from her birth in Brooklyn at the end of World War II, through the great cultural upheaval of the 1960s and 70s to the present. Moving to the West Coast in 1970, Ms. Cooper lived in communes in the San Francisco Bay area, and was very much a participant of the counterculture. During that turbulent era, she began asking such pivotal questions as, ?Can you change society to make it more equitable for all And, ?Can you know God; and how would that relationship impact your life Follow Ms. Cooper s quest for the answers to her probing questions. Read the account of how this Jewish woman had an encounter with the God of Israel in a most unexpected way.
