Many of the STEM fields require completion of advanced courses in mathematics or science, subjects that are introduced and developed at the kindergarten through 12th grade level, and the federal government has taken steps to help improve achievement in these and other subjects. Enacted in 2002, the No Child Left Behind Act ( NCLBA ) seeks to improve the academic achievement of all of the nations school-aged children. NCLBA requires that states develop and implement academic content and achievement standards in mathematics, science and the reading or language arts. All students are required to participate in statewide assessments during their elementary and secondary school years. Improving teacher quality is another goal of NCLBA as a strategy to raise student academic achievemen. . . This item ships from La Vergne,TN. Paperback.
