Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Teaching Staff of Secondary Schools in the United States, Amount of Education, Length of Experience, Salaries Sir: In pursuance of the recommendation of Prof. Edward L. Thorndike, of Columbia University, who, at my request, has assisted this office in the rearrangement of its statistical schedules, the plan has been adopted of separating the regular statistical inquiries of the Bureau of Education into two divisions. The inquiries of the first division are made annually as heretofore, and are published in the Annual Report of the Commissioners of Education. Those of the second division are arranged in a series of five, one of them to be conducted each year, and the five-year cycle to be repeated in each successive five-year period; the results of the inquiries of this second division to be reported in various issues of the Bulletin of the Bureau of Education. According to the Present plan the inquiries of this cycle will be made follows: First year, the teaching force. Second year, the body of learners (pupils and students). Third year,...
