Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Sermon on the Perfection of God: In the Imperfection of His People My Beloved and Worthy Son: The present hour, I have received your letter, dated Minneapolis, July 9th, 1858. I was deeply affected by the following paragraph: I attended a lecture, preceding evening prayers, at the College, by Rev. Dr. Squiers; the subject of which was the necessity of moral evil; the vexed question - in which he maintained, or endeavored to maintain, with much inconsistent reasoning, That moral evil is a necessary consequence of the existence of a moral system. He said, The nature of intelligence is free-will. I asked him, afterwards, if it was independent will? He could not get along very well with that question. - I was amused, that I should come so directly in contact with one of the greatest champions of views so opposite to those, which I have sought to defend. - On this subject, God has instructed and enabled you to defend the truth before many witnesses, on your application to be a candidate for the Christian ministry, until your recent dismissal from the church and parish in Shrewsbury. You have, not only defended the truth on this subject, but have endured with patience and boldness, a severe trial of your faith and hope, in your person and family, for the name, kingdom and glory of the Lord Jesus Christ. God be praised, that it has been given to you, In nothing terrified by your adversaries; - which is to you an evident token of salvation; and that of God; in the behalf of Christ, not only to believe on Him, but also to suffer for...
