Qualifications.--The qualifications desired of applicants for these positions are as follows: (a) That they be graduates in medicine. It is preferred that they shall have received a doctor of philosophy degree (or have had an equivalent training) from a first-class institution. (b) They must be trained in bacteriological laboratory work and must have good technique. (c) They must have a good thorough fundamental knowledge of pathological anatomy. (d) They must have a knowledge of and training in immunity and serum therapy. (e) They must be young, healthy, and energetic, and capable of doing research work; in fact, they should have all the qualifications needed by a first-class laboratory research worker. All statements in relation to training, experience, and fitness are subject to verification. It is believed that these positions will be attractive to persons who are competent for the work....
