Reviews

This type of publication is every thing and helped me seeking ahead and much more. It usually fails to charge too much. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.

THE BLACK AND RED, VOL. 3: JUNE 1913 (CLASSIC REPRINT)

Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Black and Red, Vol. 3: June 1913 The most important feature of this term has been the adoption of the House System, whereby the School House is now divided into two parts by partitions in the main corridors, and each part placed under a House-master. Thus we now have: Warden s House (Mr. Thomas); East House (Mr. Sparks); and West House (Mr. Willis), the average number in each being about fifty boarders and twenty day-boys. Each house has its own locker room, day room, and library. The libraries of the newly-formed houses have separate rooms, which have been made more attractive with pictures, pennants, and photographs of old boys and groups. The East and West Houses are, of course, keen rivals in games, and when a boy wins any individual championship, such as Shooting, Boxing, Running, Gym, or Tennis, a pennant, bearing the date, is awarded to his House as a permanent trophy. The old athletic store-room has been cut in two to give Mr. Willis a sitting-room, and the remainder fitted with cupboards to hold the great-coats and haversacks of the Cadet Corps. W. Campbell is Librarian of the East House, and H. Dobbie of the West House. The latter house having inherited practically the whole of the former Lending Library, the Warden has started a new library in the East House with about sixty carefully chosen books, besides the nucleus of a reference library. The house is indebted to Dr. J. D. Helmcken, who has kindly contributed a complete set of the works of Dickens. We are able to announce that a Lawn Tennis Tournament will be held towards the end of...
