I quickly gathered that we were to act as a kind of flying constabulary, giving our services according as circumstances and the sentries, several of whom I was rather pleased to find posted round the camp, required them. On this night, owing to much property being abroad, and but kw of the tents yet occupied, we were called upon pretty often, thanks to a horde of gipsies in a neighbouring wood, whose ideas of annexation were worthy of Bismarck, and their ubiquity perfectly marvellous. That gravel pit has got several near relations, and the family likeness is remarkable. I have spent the hours I usually devote to the society of Agatha Jane in wandering about like a modern Diogenes, or a human Jack o Lantern, to the tune of many false alarms, and a few real ones, and have performed feats of agility in and over the gravel pits, in the uncertain light of the small hours of the morning, that would have astonished Little Philpot-lane, even in the brightest noonday. However, I have protected the crown and dignity of my Sovereign Lady the Queen, and if my uniform has been made a little damp, I glory in it. I am only uneasy again about Charley, who has just appeared, not looking as well as I could wish, his teeth having troubled him again, poor fellow; and but for my P.B. (I observed an empty bottle when I...
