Victoria University Press, New Zealand, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 226 x 150 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. A land ballot was the means by which Fleur Adcock s grandparents, immigrants from Manchester during World War I, were able to bid for a piece of native bush on the slopes of Mount Pirongia in the North Island of New Zealand. Their task was to turn this unpromising acreage into a dairy farm. When things didn t work out as they had hoped much of the responsibility for running the farm and engineering their eventual escape fell on their teenage son, Adcock s father. This sequence of poems follows the course of their efforts and builds up a portrait of a small, isolated community. The Land Ballot is at once a moving family memoir, an extraordinary act of historical imagination, and a dazzling sequence of poems.
