Solid Ground Christian Books. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 124 pages. Dimensions: 7.9in. x 4.9in. x 0.4in. Here, in these words from his lectures and prayers in the Geneva Academy, John Calvin most fully revealed his heart. As he prepared an international gathering of talented young men for gospel ministry--and not a few for martyrdom--he poured his knowledge into them and prayed fervently with them. Here he models what he sought to teach: if a man would be a pastor he must know God. If he would know God and serve man he must devote himself to prayer and the ministry of the word. - Sinclair B Ferguson This precious book confirms Calvins conviction that the Word and prayer work together to develop genuine piety in the Christian. Calvin taught that the Word is Gods communication to us, providing us with spiritual food and medicine for spiritual health. Prayer is our communication to God by which we express praise and adoration, and bow in submissive piety before Him. May God mightily use this little volume to foster this spirit of devotion in many hearts and lives. -Dr. Joel R. Beeke This item ships from multiple locations.
