Secretary Colby called the meeting to order, stated its purpose, and opened the proceedings with the following brief address: Members Of The Governing Board, Ladies And Gentlemen: This meeting is held for the purpose of installing the newly elected Director General of the Pan American Union, Dr. L. S. Rowe, in the very honorable and very important office to which the Board of Governors of the Pan American Union has elected him. It marks also the formal termination of the very great career with this institution of Mr. John Barrett, who lays aside the duties of Director General after a period of many years which have witnessed its great growth and development in importance, in usefulness and in service to the interests which called it into being. The hour is one, let mc say, of mingled feelings of melancholy on the one hand, of farewell tribute to a faithful officer, and, on the other, of gratification that we are able to induct into the office which he vacates a gentleman of such conspicuous sympathy with Latin American feelings and ideals, and of such honorable record of cementing relationship between the Latin American countries and the United States of America. I do not intend, my friends, to unduly project myself into these exercises. I do not even intend to indulge in any propensity, of which I may be suspected, of oratory. I wish to give you concrete and tangible evidence...
