Excerpt: .at Phipps Clinic the principal of the Nurses Training School established then, and I think it is still carried on, the necessity of each student nurse spending a period of time in the department of occupational therapy not necessarily being instructed in the crafts we were using, but rather getting a bird s eye view, as it were, of what occupational therapists were trying to accomplish. I want to tell you of the fine spirit we had there: there never was a nurse, that I can recall, who did not come back to the department in her time off duty and volunteer her services in the department of occupational therapy. I think that is a concrete tribute to the high interest of nurses, as they did not have much time; they were more or less overworked, and it established our work and they spent...
