Outskirts Press, United States, 2011. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 211 x 137 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Raising Sentry reveals elements of courage beyond years, religious faith, military life, along with traditional southern family values. This story is biographical fiction and is the first of a series designed to follow along as Sentry develops the mental armor needed to overcome life challenges. In this organic narrative several short stories are closely related. The protagonist is a twelve year old girl who narrates her story. The opening reveals the trauma predestined to infect her entire being. The narrator switches between first person and third person in order to make the connection between traumatic experiences; at times she is in the storyline and apart of the trauma; then as if standing on the sideline viewing it as it unfolds. This is artistic form the author uses to bring attention to the content provided by the changes in tense. The story takes place during the 1950 s and early 1960 s in Arkansas, Hawaii, and throughout California s various military bases. However, the prime location is in San Diego, California; the story starts here but this is not where the story begins. The flash backs in time pull the story together and provides the reader with a glimpse into the protagonist s care free life with her loving family members in the segregated south. My name is Sentry. Social conditioning, environmental exposure, family values, as well as biological makeup are strong factors toward determining one s mind set and actions. No less is true for me as her first born. I have been mentally charged with the lifelong duty to serve and to protect. My birth was the direct response of unwanted and unsolicited desires of...
